

Press Release

Veermaster Die No-Shanty-Partyband

Full speed ahead is the motto when the musicians of the partyband Veermaster strap on their instruments and enter the stage in/at _____. Then there is time for coverrock and partyhits that encourage dancing, singing along and celebrating..

Directly from Hamburg, Germany, the home of harbor, ships and the infamous Reeperbahn, the band comes along in the typical sailor look. But they have thrown sea shanties overboard. Instead, they bring a mix of german and international hits of the last 50 years. Pieces from Tina Turner to Die Toten Hosen, from Nena to Pink, from Bryan Adams to Rammstein go along for the ride. Mostly interpreted in a rocky way, this mix sweeps every audience away.

By the way: The band name Veermaster is the Low German term for a sailing ship with four masts. It is a tribute to the Sea Shanty "Hamborger Veermaster", which is very famous in Germany.

More Info at Veermaster.net
Veermaster.Hamburg@gmail.com